

tempo

Vol. 1, No. 9

University of Dallas
News & Information

Feb. 12, 1979

DUE TO AN OVERSIGHT, last week's "Tempo" was distributed without the leaflets and contributor envelopes from the American Heart Association. Anyone wishing to support the Dallas Chapter of the American Heart Association should return the contributor envelope to Tim Searson, News & Information, Haggar University Center.

* * *

THE FIRST MEETING OF THE FRIDAY CLUB, sponsored by the Student Foundation, will be held at 3:30 p.m., Feb. 16, in the Gorman Faculty Lounge. Dr. Michael Platt will be the featured speaker. His topic will be "About Suffering, Auden and Breughal," thoughts on W.H. Auden's "Musee des Beaux Arts" and Breughal's "Fall of Icarus." As in the past, the meeting will be informal and refreshments will be provided.

* * *

DR. MORTIMER ADLER, the 1979 McDermott Professor, will arrive Feb. 19 to begin his lectureship with the Institute of Philosophic Studies. Three public lectures have been scheduled for Feb. 20, 22 and 28 at 8 p.m. in Lynch Hall. Dr. Adler's topics for the three public lectures will be "The Problem of Proving God's Existence," "Aristotle for Everybody," and "The Vicissitudes of Western Thought," in respective order. Reservations should be made for each lecture by calling Ext. 224. There is no admission charge.

* * *

THE GORMAN LECTURE SERIES will present Prof. Louis H. Mackey of the University of Texas-Austin philosophy department, Feb. 14. The topic of the program will be "Faith and Reason in St. Bonaventure and Kierkegaard." The program will be held at 7 p.m. in the dining room, second floor, Haggar University Center. There is no charge for admission. For more information, call Ext. 219.

* * *

DR. THOMAS LANDESS will be the featured speaker in the first program of Community Education's American City series, scheduled for Feb. 14. "The Community and a Sense of Justice" will be the topic. Dr. Landess will discuss the way in which a community deals with the individuals who violate its norms and how this reflects the moral and spiritual health of a community. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Haggar Meeting Room. Call Ext. 223 for reservations. There is no admission charge for students or faculty.

* * *

THE HISPANIC HERITAGE OF TEXAS will be highlighted in a one-day symposium Feb. 24 in Gorman Lecture Center. The symposium, which begins at 9:30 a.m., will deal with the problems and potentialities of bilingualism. The fee is $7.50 and includes the luncheon. For further information, call Ext. 220.

* * *