

UD Communications

Tempo

January 12, 1987
Vol. 10, No. 1

The Development Office reports a year-end total of $421,768 for the UD Fund. The Constantin Foundation contributed $150,000 to the Fund, as well as $75,000 for scholarships and $500,000 to the Capital Campaign. A challenge grant of $50,000 was also awarded by the Constantin Foundation. Details on how you can help meet the challenge will be in a forthcoming issue of TEMPO.

JODY HAMILTON, secretary to President SASSEEN, would like to thank everyone who helped make the Christmas party a success. A special thanks to BRENDA ATKINSON who always comes through in a pinch.

JOB OPENING--Office of Student Life seeks applications for administrative assistant. Candidates must possess strong secretarial skills and enjoy working with young adults. Must be well organized and capable of working independently on a variety of administrative tasks. Call SHANE WILBANKS for further details, 5255.

LESLEIGH FRANKLIN is the new counselor in Student Life. Her phone number is 5323. Be sure to add it to your directory.

PHI ALPHA THETA, the international honor society in history, awarded UD's KAPPA-RHO chapter an honorable mention award in the Best Chapter Contest, Category II, which includes schools with enrollment from 2,500 to 4,500. It is the chapter's first award in the Best Chapter Contest.

St. Joseph Hospital Guild is having a country and western fund-raiser dance Jan. 30 at the Nine Acres Club, Building II in Colleyville. It will benefit the Saint Joseph Hospital Guild Project Fund. Advance tickets can be purchased at the hospital gift shop or cafeteria for $7 per person. For additional information call the Guild office at 336-9371, ext. 5540.

Dr. SASSEEN and other representatives will be meeting with the editorial staffs of the Dallas Morning News and the Dallas Times Herald to discuss the major issues confronting state higher education in the coming year. The visit is part of a follow-up to a Higher Education Summit and press conference that will be held in Austin tomorrow by the Association of Texas Colleges and Universities. The new editor of the Irving Daily News, Louise Whitmer, will visit campus next week to discuss a number of story possibilities. A delegation will also meet with some editors of the Dallas Times Herald to discuss, among other things, the core curriculum and the Rome Program.