

A reminder: Fundraising continues for the UD Athletic Department and a $5 donation buys one chance for the July 28 drawing for a 1985 Volkswagon Scirocco. The car is equipped with a five-speed transmission and air conditioning. For more information on the drive or to purchase a ticket, please call the Athletic Department at #5207.

A $12,000 gift to be used for GSM student recruitment was given to the Health Services Management MBA program in June by Cigna Healthplan. The gift will be used for student fellowships. Bill McBride, Cigna president, presented the check to President ROBERT F. SASSEEN on June 13. Cigna is a national health maintenance organization (HMO).

President ROBERT F. SASSEEN delivered the commencement address at Cistercian Preparatory School on May 25.

WELCOME to two new University employees! WILLIAM HENLEY, new dean of admissions, joined the staff June 17 and FRED FLACK, the new chief engineer, began work on May 31.

Best of luck to MICHAEL HEATER who leaves UD on June 28. He is joining St. Louis University as associate dean and director of admissions.

New baby congratulations to three UD families. Dr. and Mrs. DANIEL J. LUBY are the parents of Peter Bennett Luby. Their son was born April 21 weighing eight pounds, 11 ounces. Luby is an adjunct professor of theology. Dr. JOSEPH LAWRENCE and his wife, Nina Elisabeth Solbakken-Lawrence, are the parents of Nina Camilla Solbakken Lawrence. Their daughter, born May 24, weighed eight pounds, eight ounces. Lawrence is an assistant professor of philosophy. VICKY JORDAN and her husband, Miguel Zapata, are the parents of David Michael Alexander. Their son was born May 26 weighing nine pounds, 11 ounces. Vicky is a secretary in the History Department.

The family of GSM professor Dr. ROBERT C. PERRY, who passed away June 12, wishes to express its appreciation to faculty, staff and students for their many kindnesses during Dr. Perry's illness.

The University community extends its condolences to WILLIAM HENLEY, dean of admissions, on the death of his father-in-law, Michael Kearns, of Reynoldsburg, Ohio.

Two faculty members are working on research projects funded by grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Dr. EILEEN GREGORY, assistant professor of English, is working on "The Sapphic Erotic Vision in H.D.'s Early Poetry." Dr. STEVEN MADDUX, assistant professor of foreign languages, is conducting research on "Robert de Boron's Arthurian Cycle: The Hermeneutics of Old French Romance." A $3,000 stipend was awarded to both professors as part of grant.
