

TEXAS
PRESS CLIPPING BUREAU
DALLAS

Established 1910

Dallas, TX
Observer
(Cir. W. 55,000)

MAY 12 1988

WEDNESDAY 18

Final exam 469

Connection Gallery continues View and Reviews and The Search For Order in Chaos, MFA thesis exhibitions by University of Dallas graduate art students Cristi Branum and Trish Nickell. Through JUNE 13. 3200 Main, 2nd floor. Call 252-8265.

The SMU Master of Fine Arts Qualifying Exhibit continues in Meadows Museum on the SMU campus through MAY 22. Dial 692-3510.

J.A.P. rap

The Career & Professional Women's Division of the Jewish Federation of Great Dallas sponsors a dinner lecture featuring attorney and writer Sherry Merfish. The program, entitled J.A.P. Jokes: No Laughing Matter, examines social stereotyping. 6:30 pm. $12. Dallas Parkway Hilton, 4801 LBJ Frwy. Call 369-3313.

Blessed are the pace makers

The Seventh Annual Senior Games at UTA is expected to draw over 1,200 participants MAY 18-21, competing according to age group in softball, bowling, tennis, ping-pong, horseshoes, dancing, 42, and track and field events. The event is open to those 50 years old and over. Registration fees vary from $3 to $5.50, depending on the event. For more information, call 261-0927.

★ F.Y.I.

Wynton Marsalis opens a five-day engagement tonight at Fort Worth's Caravan of Dreams. Call 429-4000. And at the Arcadia, it's Bobby McFerrin and the McFerrin Orchestra (just kidding). Call 787-2000. Alianza Cultural de Artes y Letras sponsors Carmen Montejo y Su Poesia Ritmica (rhythmic poetry) MAY 18-19 in Dallas Theater Center's Kalita Humphreys Theater. The performance is entirely in Spanish.