

Notes from UD

Feb. 1-3 -- TEXAS FINE ARTS ASSOCIATION SHOW -- Collection of prints and drawings by high school students. Hagggar University Center. Call 438-1123, ext. 319 for more information.

Feb. 1-3 -- MASTER OF ARTS SHOW -- Exhibit by Kathryn Houston. Haggerty Art Center. Call 438-1123, ext. 319 for more information.

Feb. 5 -- LOVE AND LAUGHTER IN WORLD THEATER -- Second in a series of eight programs about the development of comedy presented by interdepartmental faculty. "Laughter in Rome" will be subject of program presented by Dr. Grace West, foreign language department, 7:30 p.m., Gorman Faculty Lounge. Feb. 12, "Comedy in the Middle Ages," with Dr. Raymond DiLorenzo, English department. For more information, call 438-1123, ext. 223.

Feb. 13 -- TOLKIEN -- Four seminars discussing Tolkien and the Christian Renaissance; "The Silmarillion"; The Myth of Meaning; "The Hobbit"; Language and Truth; and "The Lord of the Rings" and Contemporary Epic. Dr. James Patrick, academic dean, will lead the seminars. Meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Braniff Graduate Building, Room 132, Hagggar University Center. Call 438-1123, ext. 223 for more information. $20 fee.

Feb. 15 -- CHILDREN'S LITERATURE AND THE ADULT -- The moral and aesthetic questions raised by adults attempting to select books for children will be discussed by Dr. Cherie Clodfelter, education department, in four sessions. $20 fee. 7:30 p.m., Braniff Graduate Building, Room 132. Call 432-1123, ext. 223 for more information.

Feb. 15 -- THE NATURAL TEXAS -- A series of four presentations by experts in the fields of geology, wildlife, meteorology and history. $20 fee. "Wings Over Texas," with Warren Pulich, biology department, 7:30 p.m., Carpenter Hall, Room 205. Feb. 22, "The Geology of Texas," with John Halsey, geologist. For more information, call 438-1123, ext. 223.

Feb. 24 -- THE HISPANIC HISTORY OF TEXAS: LANGUAGE, LAW, LORE AND LITERATURE -- A one-day symposium dealing with the problems and advantages of bilingualism and the Hispanic heritage. $7.50 fee includes luncheon. 9:30 a.m., Hagggar University Center. To make reservations, call 438-1123, ext. 220.