NOTES

Dr. Bernard F. Batto, of the Theology Department, has announced a tour of the lands of the Bible for May 14-29. The study tour is a 16-tour/14-night study tour in Israel and Jordan. Places to be seen include Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Nazareth, the Sea of Galilee, the Dead Sea, and many more. For more information contact Dr. Batto at ext. 5359.

A special exhibition and sale of Original Oriental Art will be presented on Monday and Tuesday, March 9 and 10, Haggar University Center, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Marson Ltd. of Baltimore, Maryland specializes in exhibiting, for sale, a collection of Original Oriental Art totaling approximately 800 pieces from Japan, China, India, Tibet, and Thailand. The oldest prints date back to the 18th and 19th centuries and include Japanese woodcuts, Indian miniature paintings and manuscripts with master works by such artists as Hiroshige, Kuniyoshi, and Kunisada.

Dr. Joe L. Welch, GSM marketing professor, learned recently that Harvard University's business school had ordered 145 copies of his new book, Marketing Law. In progress is a second book by Welch entitled Sales Force Management which will be off South-Western Publishing Company's press in November 1981.

Mr. Joe Duggan, UD alumnus, class of 1976, has won first prize in the Virginia Press Association's annual competition for editorial writing. The prize was awarded for a series of editorials. He wrote during 1981 on American relations with Cuba and especially about Americans imprisoned in Cuba.
