Dr. DAVID HIGGINS, GSM associate professor of finance, is offering free "brown bag" seminars for faculty and staff March 16, 23 and 30 in upstairs Haggar. Seminars will address various forms of savings and investment vehicles and how to set and achieve longer-term financial goals such as funds for educating your children and for financial security in retirement years. You need not notify anyone of your intention to attend. Each session will begin at noon and end at 1 p.m.

From the Art Department: JUERGEN STRUNCK, associate professor of art and Haggar University Gallery director, will present an exhibition of relief prints and works on paper at the Moss/Chumley Gallery at The Crescent March 6-April 11. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday. MARK LAVATELLI, assistant professor of art, will exhibit recent paintings and works on paper at The Watson Gallery in Houston March 7 through 28. GISELA-HEIDI STRUNCK, wife of Juergen Strunck, is exhibiting sculptures at Conduit Gallery in Dallas through April 15. Visiting artist WAYNE KIMBALL will exhibit lithographs in the Haggerty Art Center March 6-April 6. Reception for the artist will be March 27, 7 to 9 p.m. in Haggerty. He will visit the University March 23-28 to give a lecture and demonstration. Times to be announced. Graduate student NANCY JOHNSTON FERRO is exhibiting her prints at North Lake College Gallery until March 26.
