

UD Communications

Tempo

July 25, 1983
Vol. 6, No. 15

Assistant Professor of Politics DR. WAYNE AMBLER is the 1983 recipient of the Leo Strauss Dissertation Award for his Ph.D. dissertation, "Aristotle's Understanding of the Naturalness of the City." This prestigious award, given annually by the American Political Science Association, is open to every political science graduate department in the country. Dr. Ambler will receive the award at the American Political Science Association Convention in Chicago in early September.

The Claremont Review of Books, a quarterly journal of politics and culture, publishes contributions from both students and faculty. The editors seek essays on current books and classics, films, the arts and contemporary political and social issues. They will also consider brief fiction and poetry. For more information contact Ken Masugi, Editor, the Claremont Review of Books, The Claremont Institute, 480 North Indian Hill Boulevard, Claremont, CA 91711.

BARBARA PEREZ, Personnel, is accepting applications for two job openings. The vacancies are admissions counselor and administrative assistant to the psychology department. Contact #5202 for more information.

Ramada Inn on West Airport Freeway will offer accommodations at a discount rate for all University of Dallas groups, faculty, staff, students and visitors. Transportation from the airport terminals is provided free of charge. For information or reservations contact TED KARAKEKES in Student Life, #5387, or Donna Battson at 579-8911.

The Communications department will begin distribution of the GSM CHRONICLE the first week in August. If you have material you would like to submit for the next issue (Sept-Oct) please send to Communications by Sept. 9.

TEMPO is published bi-weekly on the second and fourth Mondays of the month. If you have any items to be included, please send a note to UD COMMUNICATIONS or call #5261 before noon on the Friday preceding publication date.

