

Save the DateMLK Day Symposium:

Reflections on a Spirituality of Nonviolence & Inclusion

Sister Josephine Garrett, C.S.F.N., BA '03Monday, Jan. 15 , 2018*11 a.m. - 1 p.m. | SB Hall

Dear friends,

I am excited, both as a UD alum and as a faculty member, to invite you to this year's Martin Luther King Jr. Day Symposium.

My excitement stems not only from the promise of the day and import of the message of social justice and ethnic and cultural comity which it represents, but especially because the speaker is also a UD Alum, a first in this series.

I think you will find Sr. Josephine Garrett, CSFN, BA, '03 a thoroughly engaging and interesting speaker. As an alum, an experienced leader in the business community, and a member of a religious congregation, she brings a uniquely layered blend of perspectives to the event.

Please plan to attend yourself and encourage colleagues and friends to do so as well by passing along this 2018 MLK Day Flyer with a personal note to current students, alums, and members of the larger civic and religious community too.

If you plan to attend, please RSVP by Jan. 12 at udallas.edu/mlk so that we can gather a proper headcount for lunch. Feel free to contact me with any questions you may have.

Peace and good,

Dan Luby, S.T.L., S.T.D.
