

tempo

Vol. 5, No. 7

News and Information
University of Dallas

February 15, 1982

NOTES:

The Department of Foreign Languages will have a meeting for all students of Foreign Languages, modern and ancient. The meeting will be on Thursday, Feb. 18th at 7:30 p.m. in upstairs Haggar reception room. The main topic will be: OUT THERE IN THE "REAL" WORLD. Several UD alumni who graduated as Foreign Language or Classics majors will come to talk about their practical experience with Foreign Languages. DR. HELMUT MERKLEIN, Dean of the Graduate School of Management will talk about the value of foreign language skills.

DR. GENE CURTSINGER, (English) recently had his article "James's Writer at the Sacred Fount" accepted for publication in The Henry James Review.

MRS. HEIDRUN COLEMAN, Foreign Language Dept., has a new extension number, 5020. Please update your directory.

The University Women's Group will have the next regular Brown Bag Luncheon February 17th, 12-1 p.m., Upstairs Haggar. For more information call Mrs. Sasseen at 352-9462.

DRAMA:

French Studio Drama: Musset's Les Caprices De Marianne runs Friday & Saturday, Feb. 19th and 20th in Margaret Jonsson Theater. The production (in French) is Barbara Schulz's senior directing project. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. No reservations, free.

EDUCATION:

Law and The Teacher. Mr. James Deatherage will present two seminars on Law and the Teacher, Feb. 15th and 22nd, 7:30 - 9:30 p.m. in Gorman Faculty Lounge. Mr. Deatherage will focus his sessions on state and local cases involving teachers. He is currently serving on the (Texas) Governor's Education Action Group. The lectures are free. For reservations call ext. 5389.

ENLIGHTENMENT:

Personal Financial Planning - Part two featuring Investments and Financial Resources will include types of investments; using leverage; evaluating return on investments; resources free for the asking and professional help - when and how to use it. February 13th, Sat. 10-12 noon, Gorman A. For reservations call ext. 5225. 1 session, 2 hrs. $15.

Never Summer Productions. A slide and musical arrangement titled "I Saw the Wind" combine for an exhilarating presentation of mountain climbs throughout Colorado, the Tetons, the Wind Rivers and sights throughout Colorado. 7:30 p.m., Lynch Auditorium, Feb. 14th, free.

MUSIC:

February 15th---8 p.m.---Campus Concert: A variety of vocal and instrumental music performed by U.D. students, faculty and staff.

FILMS:

February 16th Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, sponsored by Community Education will star Frederic March and Miriam Hopkins, Lynch Auditorium, 7:30 p.m. Tickets at the door $1.

February 19th -21st Lord of the Rings, sponsored by Student Government will be held in Lynch Auditorium, Friday and Sunday at 7:30 p.m. free.

ART:

A special exhibition and sale of Original Graphic Art will be presented Tuesday, Feb.16th, at Haggar University Center from 10-5 p.m. Marson Graphics of Baltimore, Maryland specializes in exhibiting for sale a distinguished collection of original etchings, woodcuts, lithographs and serigraphs. The collection is affordably priced with prints beginning at $5.

Please note that all information for the Tempo will be gathered on the Thursday prior to the week of publication. If you wish to include any information in the Tempo, please send a memo to News and Information or call ext. 5261.