

tempo

Vol. 5, No. 15

News and Information
University of Dallas

April 13, 1982

Notes:

The Student Government's Spring Formal will be held Saturday, April 17th at the Amfac Hotel at DFW Airport. All faculty and staff members are invited to attend and to bring their spouse or a date. Admission is free.

Tapes of Prof. David Lachterman's lectures, delivered here two weeks ago, on Aristophanes' Frogs and on "The Theoretical and Practice in Aristotle" are available for borrowing from DR. MICHAEL PLATT (ext. 5342). The tapes include the discussions that followed each lecture.

DR. MICHAEL PLATT's lecture on Goethe's Faust entitled "The Striving of the West" and delivered at the Goethe in 1982 Conference at Hofstra University last week has been selected by the conference directors for publication both here and in Germany.

Music:

By Popular Demand - "The King and I" will have a repeat performance on Wednesday, April 14th, at 8 p.m., Upstairs Haggard. The abridged version of this Rogers and Hammerstein favorite, stars UD students Al Gigl and Barbara Schulz and other members of Lyric Theater Workshop.

Films:

April 13      Hound of the Baskervilles, sponsored by Community Education will star Basil Rathbone, Lynch Auditorium, 7:30 p.m. Tickets $1 at the door.

April 16-18    One Flew Over The Cuckoos Nest sponsored by Student Government will be held in Lynch Auditorium, Friday and Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Free.