

Photo exhibit in UD gallery

The Carlotta Corpron photography show, one in a series of 10 exhibits, will be featured at the University Gallery of the University of Dallas through Dec. 7. Gallery hours are from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and from noon to 3 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

The newly-completed University Gallery is a professional gallery with 124 feet of wall space. Although the gallery is non-departmental, it is directed by Lyle Novinski, chairman of the UD art department, and his student assistants, Mary Boo Carter and Donna McCendon. A student board, which will eventually consist of 12 people, will manage the gallery.
