

What's happening in, at

University of Dallas

Irving

This calendar appears in the Dallas Times Herald Living section daily. Activities listed must have general interest. Send your items to What's Happening, Living Section, Dallas Times Herald, P.O. Box 5445, Dallas, Texas 75222.

TODAY Anniversary

Lincoln High School will officially celebrate its 40th anniversary at 5 p.m. in the school auditorium, 5000 Oakland Ave. The keynote speaker will be the Reverend Marvin Griffin, Lincoln graduate, President of the Austin Independent School District Board of Trustees. A reception will be held in the school cafeteria from 6:30 to 7 p.m. For further information, call Ms. Thelma Fair at 421-5451 or Mrs. Mable Chandler at 428-5134.

Art

The paintings and drawings of Houston artist Salle Werner-Vaughn will be on exhibit at 3 p.m. today in the Entrance Foyer of the Hockaday School, 11600 Welch Road. The showing will continue for two weeks. Admission is free.

Child Care

The Texas Department of Human Resources is seeking persons who enjoy taking care of children and are interested in qualifying for the Registered Family Home Program. Areas of the city with an immediate need for the homes are Cockrell Hill and West Oak Cliff. For more information, call Sandy Bass at 927-5210.

Classes

"Learning to Love Again," a workshop dealing with the differences in romantic and married love, and commitment in a relationship, will be offered from 7 to 10 p.m. March 7 and 14 by the Women's Center of Dallas, 2001 McKinney. The workshop is designed for singles and couples concerned with their ability to establish a commitment in a relationship. The registration fee is $15. Another course offered by the center is "Defending Yourself," beginning Saturday. Black Belt Ed Green will instruct the class. The course fee is $30. For more information and necessary admission, call either course. A ballroom dance class will be offered Tuesday by the Park North YWCA, 4434 W. Northwest Hwy.; 357-6575. A defensive driving course will be offered Tuesday by Mountain View College and the Widner Oak Cliff YWCA; 339-5181. "East Indian Cooking" will be offered Wednesday by the Central YWCA, 4621 Ross Ave.; 827-5600. "Parent Effectiveness" will be offered Wednesday by the Richardson YWCA, 515 Custer Road; 231-7201. "Camping Skills for the Tenderfoot" will be offered March 13 by the Irving North YWCA, 3600 Northgate Dr.; 252-

8683.

Lecture

"African Violets — Past, Present and Future" will be the title of a lecture by Bill Johnson, to be presented at 2 p.m. at North Haven Gardens, 7700 Northaven Road. The lecture is part of the "Outdoor Living Show" series.

Music

The University of Texas at Dallas Civic Chorale will present a free public concert at 8 p.m. in the University Theatre of UTD, Floyd and Campbell Roads in Richardson. The program will include choral works by des Pres, Handel, Brahms and Stevens. Dr. Stewart J. Clark will direct, and pianist Michelle Sargeant will accompany. For additional information, call 690-2982.

Texas Woman's University's Dallas Recital Series will feature violinist Norma Davidson at 3 p.m. at the TWU Presbyterian Center, 8104 Walnut Hill Lane. Mrs. Davidson, with accompaniment by Delia Benton, will perform works by Tchaikovsky and Bach. The recital is free and open to the public.

The Texas Flute Club will present a program of music for flute choir at 3 p.m. in room 262 of the Music Building, North Texas State University in Denton. Works by Boismortier, Adler, Schickele and Tull will be featured, and members are asked to bring flute and stand to participate. Admission is free to members, $1.50 for non-members.

Naked Truth

"The Naked Truth," a look at sexism in more than 200 slides of advertisements from a wide variety of magazines and commercials, will be presented at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Center of SMU. Jean Kilbourne will give a commentary on such issues as exploitation of sexuality, stereotyping of children and fostering of competition among women. A wine and cheese reception will follow. The event is co-sponsored by Women in Communications, Inc.

TOMORROW

Art

An exhibition of clay pieces by Evelyn Anderson will be on display through March 31 at The Frontroom gallery, 6617 Snider Plaza in the Com-

Lecture

"African Art" will be discussed by UTD anthropologist Dr. Robert P. Armstrong at 7 p.m. in Lynch Hall, University of Dallas in Irving. The lecture is presented to complement the current gallery show. A reception will follow.

Music

A Dallas Civic Symphony concerto concert will be presented at 8:15 p.m. in Caruth Auditorium, Meadows School of the Arts, SMU. James Rives Jones will conduct. Admission is $3.50, $1.50 with student identification.