

JOHN CORRALES

Mondrian in the news

Reduction is true news. Always leave construction to the reader. A single axiom is responsible for the best of the whole, or part of the whole's best.

Write these on a wall inside where you work, in your mind's walls. Oh, and mind Mondrian when you lay out your page. Each good page is 66 percent visual and uniform to this set of remembrances.

Now make the connection. We have informed art.
